

sub-01: representation and measurement sensitivity diagnostics

Additional single-participant descriptors; no biological replication claim

PCA and covariance use fixed conventions recorded in the stage-1 analysis. The single participant was the highest reported performer in all four sessions.

Measurement, reference, artifact, fatigue, and decoder recalibration effects remain possible. These plots cannot isolate biological learning or learning preservation.